Information

We are looking for committed, talented young people between the age of 16 and 19 to be a part of the BFI Film Academy 2013/14 Network Programme delivered by Film Oxford.

As a BFI Film Academy participant you will get to work with filmmakers and take part in a series of masterclasses and workshops with industry professionals, hear their top tips on how to get into and succeed in the film industry, get practice in developing and pitching your ideas and produce your own work. You'll discuss films from around the world and learn more about distribution, film-festivals and programming.

Location: Film Oxford, 54 Catherine Street, Oxford, OX4 3AH

Accreditation: You will work towards gaining a Silver Arts Award

Costs: The cost to participate in the BFI Film Academy delivered by Film Oxford is £25. But if you will struggle to pay the course fee, don't be put off as you will be able to indicate this once you are accepted on the course and this fee can be waived. Bursaries will also be made available for participants if you require assistance with travel, child care or other costs.

Eligibility: You need to be between the ages of 16 and 19 on the first day of the Academy programme. You must be a UK resident and able to commit to the programme for its duration.
